ABOUT

Created and organized by ROFMA - the Romanian Association of Workplace and Facility Management - as a yearly B2B event, ROFMEX is one of the best known events in Central and Eastern Europe dedicated to workplace, property and facility management sectors.

The 2019 edition will be dedicated to the latest trends, developments and new paradigms generated by the needs of smart workplaces and smart facility management, as well as a better understanding of the Millennials and Generation Z.

PEOPLE, PERFORMANCE, PROFESSIONALISM

ROFMEX main objectives are to promote, educate and disseminate specialized facility management and workplace management know-how.

ROFMEX is geared to the real needs of the market, providing a promotion platform for both suppliers of equipment, products, technologies and solutions, as well as for their clients, local and international. In this regard, there will be organized round tables in which market information, studies and news in the asset, property, workplace and facility management sectors will be shared.

ROFMEX provides the most adequate environment for running the ROFMA project of continuing education and training, and also certification of FM specialists. It is the hub enhancing professional and efficient ways of connecting and disseminating specialized know-how through lectures and debates, focusing on newest trends, research and benchmarking in FM.

11.19 - THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

- The state of FM. From generational changes to PropTech chances.
- Smarting up the operational FM. How to use technologies and people management for delivering a better service.
- Strategic Workplace & Facility Management. A must and an opportunity for corporate facility managers and corporate real estate managers.
- Do we see the same opportunities and treath on the local workplace and facility management market? A debate panel between building owners, developers, property managers and facility managers.

11.20 - ROFMA CERTIFIED COURSES

- Basics of facility management
- Facility management for industrial spaces
- Air quality in buildings

11.20 - ROFMA AWARDS GALA

Starting this year, ROFMEX will host the “ROFMA Awards Gala”.

Awards' winners will be the organizations and individuals who most identify themselves with ROFMA's vision and objectives of developing and professionalizing the field of workplace and facility management, based on continuous education, quality services, sustainability and business ethics.

The awards are intended to create a national best practice base that can be accessed by interested beneficiaries: building owners, developers, corporations, public administration or other interested organizations.

Winners of these prizes are organizations and individuals who most identify themselves with ROFMA's vision and objectives of developing and professionalizing the local workplace and facility management, starting from continuous education, quality services, sustainability and business ethics.
